Abstract

This is an example abstract of my dummy paper. Use “insert a file” button in the text editor on Piazza to upload your paper. Abracadabra.

Section title

This is my section body. You don’t need to follow the format of this paper – just pick one that you’re comfortable with. If you don’t have any template to start with, the ACM templates may be a good start: <https://www.acm.org/publications/proceedings-template>

If you’ve never used L^AT_EX [1] before, this is a good chance to learn about it.
